People's Mascot "Pudge" Competes in Potter League's Pet Photo Contest - Hurry, voting ends tomorrow, March 7th!

Meet Pudge! He's a 2 year old English Bulldog who was rescued from NC by one of the People's Credit Union employees. He quickly won the hearts of all employees of People's Credit Union and now serves as its Official Mascot. People's Credit Union CEO, Ellen Ford, nominated Pudge for the Potter League's annual P.S. I Love You Pet Photo Contest. You can vote as often as you like and votes will be displayed on the contest web page as they come in. Pudge LOVES attention and would love for you to vote for him.

The cost is $1 per vote with a minimum purchase of $5. Last year the Potter League raised nearly $8,000 and this year the goal is $10,000. All proceeds will go to the Potter League and their continued efforts to save more animals through their programs and services.

Pudge is looking forward to participating in the Potter League's Annual Walk for the Animals on Sunday, October 14th.

People's Credit Union Presents Donation to University of Rhode Island's Cooperative Extension Program

On Friday, February 9th the representatives from People's were in attendance at a University of Rhode Island's Rhody Rams Men's Basketball teams home game. They were there to present the Cooperative Extension program with a check for the Rhody Rams Men's Basketball's 'People's Credit Union 3 Point Co-op Shot' in which a donation is made for every 3-pointer made at a home game.

Marketing also had a table and handed out over a thousand branded spirit rally towels, sunglasses, and sticky notes. In attendance to present the donation were People's Credit Union representatives, Amy Martel,

Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer, Sean Daly, Chief Financial Officer, Courtney Hunter, Marketing Manager, as well as Jessica Holden, Marketing and Communications Specialist and Matthew Swiss, Business Development Manager for Rhody Sports Properties.

"Through URI's Cooperative Extension, statewide 4-H programs provide hands-on experiential learning opportunities to local youth, supporting the 4-H mission focusing on science education, healthy lifestyles, and citizenship," said Courtney Hunter. "We are pleased to be a community partner with 4-H, and have enjoyed the last two years as the '3 Point Co-op Shot' sponsor. We look forward to a continued relationship with the University of Rhode Island."
